Leave of His Congregation.

Rev. E. L. McGuire Concludes a Pastorate of Three Years.

TOPICS TOUCHED UPON BY CITY PASTORS

Rev. Charles Edward Locke preached his farewell sermon to the congregation of the Smithfield Street M. E. Church last evening. The church was packed to its utmost capacity long before the opening of the Tears and smiles were mingled in this formal religious farewell and the gathering eagerly pressed forward at the close of the ceremonies to bid goodby to the very popular clergyman. Mr. Locke's closing sermon was on the subject, "Christ Jesus Drawing the World Unto Himself." The text was from John 12-32: "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Me." The reverend gentleman

"The environment of the text shows that Jesus Christ was approaching the climax of his mission on the earth. In the tragedy of Mount Calvary a new force was projected into the moral universe; a power by which the affections of men were made to gravitate toward the Christ. The crucifixion of Dr. Codville Talks of the Jehovah and Its Christ was the most auspicious event of the age. The philosophy of the atonement cannot be fully comprehended, but its vast significance appears in the declaration of the Savior that when he was lifted upon Calvary's cross he would draw all men unto

The March of Civilization.

"Was that not a most audaclous claim on the part of the lowly Nazarene? Yes, they ridiculed and scorned, but what is the record of the years? The Roman Empire that had impregnably fortified every promon-tory on the Mediterranean Ses was disintegrated in its foundations, and the Pagan lization of Tiber's banks passed into the Christian empire on the green slopes of the Bosphorus. The years hurried en and the drawing power of Calvary's sacrifice estabdrawing power of Calvary's sacrifice estab-lished a higher type of government on the banks of the Thames. The unlift which is thrilling the centuries still continues. The magi bave again turned their eyes west-ward; a star shimmers over the Mississhpi Valley, and here the loftlest civilization of the ages will prepare the earth for the con-ing of Christ.

"But let us analyze the drawing power of Christ. Did you ever unbraid the sun-beams? If so, you have found not only light but life, force and beauty. The splei-dor of the rose is but the touch of a sunlight but life, force and beauty. The splendor of the rose is but the touch of a sunbeam. So I would have you unbraid the rays of power beating from the throne of a risen Lord upon the earth. Jesus draws the earth heavenward because of the majesty of purity—the purity of His own life and the purity which His teachings inculente. The Christ influence elevates literature. It the personal life of the author of 'The Light of Asia' and 'The Light of the World' has been corrupt our lofty Christian civilization has occupt our lofty Christian civilization has right to bring him to account. Writers ill not be tolerated to-day who wrote two contarios aro, such books as require expurgated editions before we put them in the hands of our children. Statesmanship has been elevated so that a great leader loses his constituency and dies in discrace, when his personal life is contaminated.

Drawing the Earth Heavenward. "The Christ draws the earth heavenward cause, further, Godliness is profitable unto all men; on account of the refining rer of truth-and Christ is truth; because he Holy Spirit in His character of guide nd comforter, and, lastly, because of the weet doctrine of immortality. After the sermon, to which the vast as embly listened with undivided attention sembly listened with undivided attention, hev. Mr. Locke spoke some words of parting, saying: "I am most grateful to you for the kindly attention which has always been given to my efforts from this pulpit. The four years of my pastorate have been years of unalloyed happiness. We have had our joys and sorrows, our successes and failures; and the memory of my associations here will remain with me in all the future as a lingering perfume. There must be nothing before from the first the future as a lingering perfume. There must be nothing before us but warfare. Win battles! When the Grand Army boys to the number of 75,000 tramped the streets of the Capital City last week to the music of fire and dram, it was the Pennsylvania contingent which drew from the speciators the most vociferous applause, because these soldiers carried the largest number of ragged and riddled and stained banners. Yes, in the grand review before the eternal throne conquest will bring honor. Let us permit the drawing inbring honor. Let us permit the drawing in-fluence of our Redeemer to lift us to the highest ideals of manhood and womanhood, and prosperity here and heaven yonder wil

Rev. Mr. Ellis, of Jamestown, N. Y., will succeed Mr. Locke as pastor of the Smith-field Street M. E. Church.

TREATMENT OF LIARS.

Rev. Dr. Hodges Advises People to Read and He Honest Doubters.

Rev. Dr. Hodges, rector of Calvary Church. preached a strong sermon before a large gregation yesterday morning. He took for his subject the treatment that was be stowed upon liars in Annanias' time, "Bind them up, carry them out and bury them." He said that one of the greatest lies of the day is the notion that young men have to go through a certain course of iniquity to fit themselves for life. He questioned whether sin was dependent upon sex. What was erong for a woman was equally wrong for a

He continued: "Men are received and lionized in society having sins, the least of which would make a woman a social out-cest. No man should go to a place or listen to conversation where he would not be will-ing to have his sister with him. It is an erroidea that people have concerning the ecessity of young men to enter temptation order to obtain strength. There is a reat difference between a man putting simeoff in temptation's way for the sake of he benefit he might get out of it and for the deasure. He poisons his mind, weakens is will, and gets so used to saying "yes" that is will, and gets so used to saying "yes" that is cannot say "no."

"Another unburied lie," continued Mr. Hodges, "is the idea now abroad among oning men that they should have their loubts about religion. Now, doubt is agood hing, the right kind of doubt, and we cannot have too much of it in the world. It is real misfortune to have truth taken for ranted. Many people mistake the rust hat coats the true iron for the iron itself, loubt is the scourer which removes he rust and reveals the true iron. We cant more honest doubters, people who want more honest doubters, people who want to know more about religion. If we make anything in religion that will not stand investigation we don't want it. Doubt makes a man think. It will not do to discourage henest doubt, to tell the young people not to read. Let them read on. The people not to read. Let them read on. The wrong kind of doubt is that flippant indifferent kind, an imitation of plety, a pretense of devotion, only an imitation of real unbelief. It is this kind of young men who so about preaching other people's sermons; they do not read or think, but follow others like feelish sheer.

END OF A THREE-YEARS' PASTORATE. Rev. E. L. McGuire Preaches His Farewell Sermon.

Rev. E. L. McGuire preached his farewell sermon at the Fifth Avenue M. E. Courch resterday. It was the termination of his ree-years' pastorate, and he took for his subject, "My Successor." The text of bis sermon was taken from "Paul Writing to the Corinthians," as to how they should re-In a general way the reverend gentleman

In a general way the reverend gentleman told the congregation how a new pastor ought to be received. It was the duty of the flock to help him inevery way and point out to him every means of improvement. Members of the church should not be anxious to show the defects and wants of a narish. They should not discourage the new pastor in the beginning of his work. They should do all in their power to help him. The speaker thanked the congregation in the kindest terms for the many courtesies and able aid he had received while among them, and said it would ever be a pleasure to him to hear of successful progress of the Fifth Avenue M. E. Church.

Services at the Jail.

The services at the jail yesterday were unneually impressive. Rev. J. W. McFarland, assisted by Rev. Mr. Whiteside, conducted the services, the former preaching an elo-quent sermon on the gespel of the day, warden McAlesse had the organ placed in the main hall of the building, and the Misses Bird rendered several hymns in good style. Hugh O'Donnell and Frank Garvin were among the prisoners who listened eagerly to the singing.

A FAREWELL SERMON.

DR. S. H. KELLOGG GOING TO INDIA. Dr. Kellogg Has Completed His Arrangements to Return to India.

Dr. S. H. Kellogg, who will sail for India October 5, preached a farewell sermon in the First Presbyterian Church last evening. The congregations from the Third and East Liberty Churches joined in the service. Liberty Churches joined in the service.
Dr. Kellogg's remarks were confined to missionary work and what can be done for the heathen. He spoke of the great spread of Christianity that has taken place in recent years, At the beginning of the century, the Bible had been translated into only 30 languages, and there were not more than 6,000,000 Bibles in the world. In 1888 the Bible was printed in 337 languages, and in that year about 6,000,000 less the Bible was printed in 337 languages, and in that year about 6,000,000 were issued. During the decade closed at the time over 34,000,000 had been printed. The number of missionaries in foreign fields has increased rapidly, and the church is to be congratulated for the progress made.

Dr. Kellogg is a man past the prime of life, and he supposed some people would ask

Dr. Kellogg is a man past the prime of life, and he supposed some people would ask why he should leave his home and country to labor in other lands. To them he would reply that he felt it his work, and he is glad of the opportunity to carry the gospel to the heathen. The doctor spoke of the self-sufficiency of people in this age, and he was sorry to say that the same idea is cropping out in India. Science had done much for men, but they should not forget that God is all-powerful. Mr. Kellogg prefers to stick to the old religious doctrines rather than accept the modern reforms.

THE DIFFERENT GODS.

Meaning.

Rev. Dr. William Codville, of Warren, O. exchanged pulpits with Rev. J. S. Hutson, of he Nixon Street Baptist Church, yesterday Rev. Mr. Codville was for 15 years pastor of a church in McKeesport. His subject yes terday morning was "Jehovah Jesus." He terday morning was "Jehovah Jesus." He spoke on the Jehovistic relationship God promised to establish with His people.

"The name of Jehovah," said he, "is the most sacred and honored name of God. When God called Moses to call His people from Egypt, He proclaimed Himself Jehovah. He then said He was not known by that name to Abraham and his posterity. There is a great difference between the names of God. Jehovah means to be. God is the fountain head of life. He was known to Abraham and his posterity as God Almighty. He wished to approach His people as Jehovah, their Father and their Friend.

"Jenovah is found in the person of Jesus. The Jehovah of the Old Testament was the Jesus of the new. The Old Testament prophets, in speaking of Christ, spoke of Him as Jehovah. The fullness of the godhead is revealed to us in the person of Christ. He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father. Men know tood not so much by Father. Men know God not so much by their head as by their heart. If the people would know more of God they must do it not by the study of theology, but by a life according to His commandments."

A HARVEST HOME.

Trinity Lutheran Church Celebrates the Senson's Bountiful Crops.

Yesterday was the harvest feast at the Trinity Lutheran Church, Stockton avenue and Arch streets. The church was handsomely decorated, Prettily arranged around the pulpit was every grain grown in this clime. In pyramids were apples, peaches, pears and grapes, while flowers of all kinds pears and grapes, while flowers of all kinds were there in profusion.

Rev. Dr. J. G. Goettman preached a very appropriate sermon from the words, "He maketh a place in thy borders and filleth thee with the fluest of wheats." He wanted to show that all was peace now. "The least thing we have to fear," said he, "is war with foreign powers. Our peace is not marred by an armed foe standing at the border lands ready to march in. God has abundantly blessed us with choice products, while other countries are barren and starvation reigns. We, with such an abundance, should be We, with such an abundance, should be In the afternoon a special service was held for the children. ALTERATIONS Now being made to our building for the easy handling of a large stock of wall paper will not be completed until October 15, until which time we will offer the same low prices made during our remnant sale. On account of being so upset we must offer extra inducements to binyers, otherwise a great part of our stock will be ruined if not sold. Next year the prices of wall paper will be higher. Buy now—you will save money. We pay 80 postage on samples of wall paper, which we send rame to any address. If the samples were not the best and our prices the lowest this money would be wasted. We pay freights on all orders of $3 or over. When you come to the Exposition call and see our stock.
